

Peer Review in Adult Learning to Improve formal and Non-formal Education

PRALINE aims at developing innovative and sustainable initiatives to support Adult Learning (AL) providers, specifically those of the Non-formal domain, in approaching Quality Assurance in their organization and training provision.

Indeed Quality culture, intended to raise stakeholders' attention to learning outcomes, sector professionals' training, resources, models of management, organizational patterns, etc is a priority in the EU Agenda for AL aimed at ensuring the "possibilities for adults to access high-quality learning opportunities, regardless of gender and their personal and family circumstances".

IMPROVE quality and relevance of the learning offer in Adult Education

INITIATE Non-Formal AL providers to a Quality culture

PROMOTE the adoption and implementation of the European Peer Review methodology for Formal & Non-formal Adult Learning

PRALINE partners have set up a twofold strategy that whilst rises awareness on the importance of investing in Quality among AL providers through the "Warming-up Strategy for developing a Quality Culture", calls for a different mind-set and provides an engaging, bottom-up and user-friendly tool, able to ensure the focus on learning outcomes as well as adaptable to the different needs of adult learners: Peer Review.
